

Mission

Batumi Shota Rustaveli State University is oriented towards the demands of the society and the state. Its first and foremost mission is:

- To offer high quality education to all the interested individuals despite nationality, religion and political status;
- To educate highly-qualified, competitive and adaptive specialists to the changing professional environment, with the competences relevant to the modern requirements, who will be the free personalities with high civic understanding and activity, bearers of the principles of humanism, democracy and liberal values;
- To accomplish fundamental and applied research in natural sciences, humanities, social sciences, law, mathematics and computer technologies as well as in the branches of engineering and technology, business, public health and agriculture for the purpose of welfare of the population, economic strength, defense ability, establishment of democratic principles and raising spirituality.